For Your Study and Reflection This Week 6th Sunday after Pentecost

Wisdom of Solomon 1:13-15; 2:23-24

For God created us for incorruption
and made us in the image of his own eternity,
but through an adversary's envy death entered the world,
and those who belong to his company experience it. (2:23-24)

Psalm 30

Sing praises to the LORD, O you his faithful ones,
and give thanks to his holy name.
For his anger is but for a moment;
his favor is for a lifetime.
Weeping may linger for the night,
but joy comes with the morning. (vv. 4-5)

2 Corinthians 8:7-15

As it is written,
“The one who had much did not have too much,
and the one who had little did not have too little.” (v. 15)

Mark 5:21-43

Taking her by the hand, he said to her, “Talitha koum,” which means, “Little girl, get up!” And immediately the girl stood up and began to walk about (she was twelve years of age). At this they were overcome with amazement. (vv. 41-42)

Questions for Reflection

When the woman who suffered a chronic and isolating ailment touched Jesus, he stated that the power had gone out from him. What aspects of your life and ministry empty you of power? How do you discern healthy limits and habits for the care of yourself and others? Which spiritual practices do you find most revitalizing when your energy reserves are depleted? In such times, how does your faith make you whole?

Household Prayer: Morning

Good morning, God.
Before this day takes hold of me and I am spread too thin by care,
I come to you to sit quietly,
for you are good to those who wait for you,
to the soul that seeks your peace.
Fill me with your life-giving presence;
may all that I do this day be done with calm attention,
for you are my strength and peace. Amen.

Household Prayer: Evening

Thank you for helping me to become a more generous and attentive person this day.
As I let go of all the things done and left undone this day,
make me mindful that it is your strength and steadfast loving presence that keeps my faith whole and fills me with a quiet confidence.
Amen.
