

Question for Reflection

What particular vision do you seek? What do you want to understand? And when you do see and understand, how will that knowledge, that insight, pull you closer to following Jesus on the way of faith and of peace?

For Your Study and Reflection This Week 23rd Sunday after Pentecost

Jeremiah 31:7-9

See, I am going to bring them from the land of the north and gather them from the farthest parts of the earth, among them the blind and the lame, those with child and those in labor together; a great company, they shall return here. (v. 8)

Psalm 126

May those who sow in tears reap with shouts of joy.
Those who go out weeping,
bearing the seed for sowing,
shall come home with shouts of joy,
carrying their sheaves. (vv. 5-6)

Hebrews 7:23-28

Consequently, [Jesus] is able for all time to save those who approach God through him, since he always lives to make intercession for them. (v. 25)

Mark 10:46-52

Then Jesus said to him, "What do you want me to do for you?" The blind man said to him, "My teacher, let me see again." Jesus said to him, "Go; your faith has made you well." Immediately he regained his sight and followed him on the way. (vv. 51-52)

Household Prayer: Morning

Holy Jesus, when I awaken each day,
I long to sing with joy for another span of hours
to spend in your company.
I long to rejoice that you have placed before me
the gifts and obstacles the day will bring.
Give me wisdom to enter into each encounter with thanksgiving,
for you hold me in your care and give me words,
in Jesus' name. Amen.

Household Prayer: Evening

Ruler of all creation,
I thank you for the time of rest beginning now,
for all that I have seen, tasted, touched,
heard, and smelled this day,
and for all the people and creatures whose lives
have come into my experience.
Bless them with sufficient rest and peace,
that together we may all rise in the morning with new strength, in Jesus' name. Amen.
