

Question for Reflection

How do you profess your faith in God's coming reign of justice and peace, even in the face of our troubled world?

For Your Study and Reflection This Week 26th Sunday after Pentecost

Daniel 12:1-3

Those who are wise shall shine like the brightness of the sky, and those who lead the many to righteousness, like the stars forever and ever. (v. 3)

Psalm 16

I keep the Lord always before me;
because he is at my right hand, I shall not be moved.
Therefore my heart is glad, and my soul rejoices;
my body also rests secure. (vv. 8-9)

Hebrews 10:11-14, (15-18), 19-25

Let us hold fast to the confession of our hope without wavering, for he who has promised is faithful. And let us consider how to provoke one another to love and good deeds, not neglecting to meet together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another, and all the more as you see the Day approaching.
(vv. 23-25)

Mark 13:1-8

Then Jesus began to say to them, "Beware that no one leads you astray. Many will come in my name and say, 'I am he!' and they will lead many astray." (vv. 5-6)

Loving God,
thank you for waking me up this morning
and giving me another day to love and serve you well.
Thank you for the ways you will lead me today;
help me to trust in you. Amen.

Household Prayer: Evening

Gracious God,
you were good to me today,
even when I lost sight of you.
Forgive my fickle and heartless ways,
and conform my will to yours.
Grant me a safe rest
and strengthen me in body, mind, and heart,
that I may serve you faithfully
and love you well
when I awake to greet your new day. Amen.
