

Questions for Reflection

According to the gospel, Christ's wounds were not erased by the resurrection. In fact, he invites Thomas and the other disciples to touch his wounds to bring the disciples back to faith. How might we in the church use our wounds to help others come to faith?

For Your Study and Reflection This Week

April 12, 2026

Second Sunday of Easter

Acts 2:14a, 22-32

“This Jesus God raised up,
and of that all of us are witnesses.” (v. 32)

Psalm 16

Protect me, O God, for in you I take refuge.

1 Peter 1:3-9

Although you have not seen him, you love him, and even though you do not see him now, you believe in him and rejoice with an indescribable and glorious joy, for you are receiving the outcome of your faith, the salvation of your souls.

John 20:19-31

Jesus said to him, “Have you believed because you have seen me?
Blessed are those who have not seen and yet have come to believe.”
(v. 29)

Household Prayer: Morning

Holy One, you have made known to me the ways of life and have promised to fill me with the gladness of your presence.
Keep me mindful of your guidance and your promise
as I travel through this day,
that my heart may be glad. Amen.

Household Prayer: Evening

Thank you, God, for giving me your counsel today.
Tonight, as I sleep, may the dreams of my heart
also serve to instruct me in your ways.
In you I have a good heritage,
and my heart, my soul, and my body rest in you. Amen.
